Question:

On page 3, under the “Requirements for Qualifications for Professional Engineering Services, Selection Process” section, A.2. mentions “except as noted in the Project Approach (Item B.3 below).”

Item B.5. doesn't say anything about a project approach. It talks about sub-consultants.

Is a project approach required for this RFP?

Answer:

A project approach is not required in the Letters of Interest.

On the RFQ, page 3, under the “Requirements for Qualifications for Professional Engineering Services, Selection Process” section, A.2.; remove the following phrase:
“except as noted in the Project Approach (Item B.5 below)”
