The following changes are made to solicitation document 180232.

- Deleted or removed language is indicated by ~~strike through~~ font. Deleted language should not be considered by the Contractor when preparing their bid.
- Added or new language is indicated by bold, underline, and italic font. This is new language that should be considered by the Contractor when preparing their bid. This added language or information is now part of the solicitation and ultimately the contract.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The following are answers to all questions received to date. Information shall be considered by Proposers when preparing their response.

Q1. Whether companies from Outside USA can apply for this (like, from India or Canada)?

A1. Provided the company meets the eligibility and qualifications requirements and the product meets the functionality requested.

Q2. Whether we need to come over there for meetings?

A2. Any meetings related to the implementation, installation, and training would be on-site in Leesburg, Florida.

Q3. Can we perform the tasks (related to RFP) outside USA (like, from India or Canada)?

A3. What tasks are you referring to? This is a premise (on-site) installed system with hardware and software to be installed on site. Not sure how you would install hardware remotely.

Q4. Can we submit the proposals via email?

A4. NO. The acceptable methods of submitting a proposal are detailed in the RFP Document.

All other elements of the Solicitation Document remain unchanged.

Please direct any questions related to this addendum to the Purchasing Office.
