

ADDENDUM NO. 2

DATE: 8/10/23

RE: Solicitation #: IFB 23-318

Solicitation Title: Electrical Services

To: All Prospective Bidders

There is no change in the proposal due date.

#	Question	Answer
1.	4.12. Upon completion of repairs, if in BCHA's reasonable opinion, any part, or work fails to conform to specifications, or is otherwise defective or unsatisfactory, the vendor will promptly replace the same at vendor's expense. Please define reasonable opinion? (The South Florida building code and the national electric code. How reasonable opinion apply?)	Broward County Housing Authority (BCHA) expects the work to always meet the applicable building/electrical code. The BCHA designated staff will inspect the quality and neatness and verify the finished work performs as expected.
2.	Contractor cost to do the procurement of permit is that flat fee or charge hourly? Also actual contractor cost off site work?	If a permit is needed for a job, all necessary permit fees shall be paid by the contractor and then reimbursed by BCHA when the contractor provides copies of paid building department receipts.
3.	What is prevailing market rate?	The prevailing market price means the best price available to buyer.
4.	Does Davis-Bacon wage rate apply?	Yes, See Section 5.9.5 of IFB 23-318 solicitation.
5.	Does Broward County living wage apply?	No.

Proposers must acknowledge receipt of this addendum by completing and returning to the Procurement Office either with their proposal or via email at purchasing@bchafl.org, by no later than the time and date of the proposal due date. Failure to do so may subject the Proposer to disqualification.
