UNDERSTANDING OF THE PROJECT

It is understood that the Escambia County Board of Commissioners is seeking qualified chaplaincy services for inmates currently housed at the Escambia County Jail. I understand the inmate population fluctuates between 1,400 and 1,600. I have served inmates of all the correctional facilities, including the Main Jail, Road Prison, and the Central Booking and Detention facility before it was destroyed in 2014. I am available to continue services immediately.

EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

Reginald P. Benjamin is the founder and director of Justified Incarcerated Ministries, Inc., and he will provide all services outlined in the proposal. Reginald has served as the chaplain at the Escambia County Jail for 7 years and has been involved in jail ministry for over 30 years. As a volunteer, he provided ministry at the following facilities: Century Correctional Institution, Santa Rosa Correctional Institution, Lompac Department of Corrections (Lompac, CA), Bullock Correctional Facility, and Berrydale Forestry Camp, to name a few.

Reginald will provide services at each of the four locations outlined in the proposal. The estimated number of hours performed by me will be 120 per month, with all costs included in the monthly rate indicated.

*See Attached Resume

REFERENCES

The following references are from individuals who are familiar with my services as chaplain at the Escambia County Jail:

- ❖ Retired Lt Jeffery Clark – (850) 380-4488
- ❖ Captain Kevin Barnes – (850) 554-4405
- ❖ Officer Kimberly Cox – (850) 382-1485

COST PROPOSAL

All costs associated with the proposal are included in the total monthly rate.

MONTHLY RATE

My proposal is $2,500.00 for the required 80 hours per month, with the understanding that the anticipated total number of hours per month averages 125.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to provide this letter of endorsement regarding the pastoral and chaplaincy ministry of Rev. Willie Tracy Leggett. I have known Tracy on a personal level for twenty years. He is both a dear friend and devoted colleague.

Tracy Leggett has been an ordained minister in the Alpha Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church (IPHIC) since 2011. In addition, Rev. Leggett received his local church minister's license in 1998 and his minister's license in 2000. He is in good standing, both within the Alpha Conference and the IPHC. Tracy is well respected among his peers. He has impeccable character; moreover, he is friendly, genuinely loves people, and loves to serve others. In addition, Tracy is a wonderful husband and devoted parent; his family status is of the highest order.

Tracy, his wife Radena, and their three children, were the founding pastors of New Vision Worship Center in Milton, FL in 2000. Tracy has faithfully served this congregation and community for 18 years as the Senior Pastor. He has also directed the Chaplaincy Ministry at Escambia County Correctional Facility full time since 2000. Previous, Rev. Leggett served part time at the facility from 2000-2003 and as a volunteer from 1995-2000.

Whether serving within his pastorate or chaplaincy duties, Rev. Leggett's leadership has brought immense hope, promise and restoration to untold hurting, marginal and grieving people. We, as a church, could not be more thankful for Rev. Leggett and his family.

I am grateful to endorse and recommend a man of his quality, for ministry that requires such a person. On a personal and professional level, I give him the highest recommendation as a faithful minister of the Gospel. He is called for this higher purpose, for such a time as this.

Please contact me if I may assist you further.

Sincerely,

Mike Gray

Dear Chaplain Leggett:

I would like to thank you for your assistance recently in providing the training needed to the First Baptist Church Pensacola Jail and Prison Ministry team serving at the Escambia County Jail. It is our great honor to provide a worship service at the jail each month and we look forward with excitement to continuing our ministry to those impacted by incarceration at the Escambia County Jail.

I appreciate your service and the manner in which you conduct the chaplaincy services at the jail. You have always been very professional and accommodating to our volunteers as we seek to share the gospel with the men with whom we come in contact each month. Your training and attention to detail prepares us very well for our responsibilities while we are in the chapel and for that we are very grateful. The jail chaplaincy is in very good hands under your leadership and we look forward to a continued relationship between First Baptist Church Pensacola and your ministry at the Escambia County Jail.

As always, if there is anything we can do for you please do not hesitate to reach out to us.

With Regards,

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in reference to WILLIE TRACY LEGGETT and his resume. I have known TRACY LEGGETT for 10 years as his Christian brother, family friend and volunteer minister to male juveniles at Escambia County Florida's Main Jail. He has faithfully served as a respected and trusted spiritual leader to my wife and myself.

TRACY does 'right things right', with a positive attitude and humble respect for everyone. He truly has the selfless-servant mentality that Jesus desires; at home, at work and in the Church. His gentle and caring leadership inspires us to give our best and respect others, even when overcoming challenges. He is a hard-working 'hands-on' leader at Church; in work parties, the food pantry, and helping disadvantaged people. He is dedicated to 'full service' for religious needs at the Jail; personally leading Most Excellent Way classes, overseeing church services and Bible/religious studies led by numerous churches and volunteers, and handling death notices for inmate family members. I have never seen TRACY lose control or blow up, even in numerous provoking situations and when resolution led to his self-sacrifice.

I strongly recommend TRACY LEGGETT for any position requiring moral integrity, dependability, enthusiasm, devotion, cooperation, responsibility and commitment. He has proven these qualities through decades of service as Chaplain at the Main Jail and Senior Pastor of New Vision Worship Center. I have personally observed him live and work at the Jail, at Church, at home, and in the world. He is more dedicated to the work of the Lord than anyone else I know, and he has the knowledge, skill, and ability to bring it success in this ungodly world.

RE: LETTER OF COMMENDATION

CONGRAUFLATIONS! You have been selected to receive a Letter of Commendation.

You offer support and assistance without question or thought to inconvenience which is highly exemplified when one of our employees was informed of a death in her family. She became emotionally distraught upon learning of the death of a family member. A co-worker contacted you for assistance and you had already left for the day due to lingering flu symptoms. Your secretary managed to contact you regarding this matter, and although you were almost home (Santa Rosa County), you returned to the office to meet with this employee.

Your dedication and selfless discharge of responsibility reflect the character of true concern for humanity. We are extremely fortunate to have such a person working with us and available in times of need.

You are truly an asset to the Sheriff's Office and are thus commended on this 13th day of May 2008.

Thank you for all your support and help these tough months with the loss of life of Heidi. I been spending time with the kids on the weekend and working Mon thru Fri. I am enjoying my visit with Ann at Celebrate Recovery. I want to be the man God has called me to be, and the Father to my children who they are proud to call me Father. The class I attended change my life the Father to Fathers. I am very grateful and thankful that our path crossed. I am very excited to put God first in everything I do and see the results of his ultimate Power and Plans he has for my future. One scripture come to mind 1 Corinthians 10: 13 which was Heidi favorite verse

"13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

I am standing on His Solid Ground. He is in charge of my life. Last, Thank you once again for the Love you showed me and the help you gave me; furthermore, you can read this to the Men of Escambia County and let them know that God is Good and he changes lives from the mire clay and makes us into his Image. God Bless and much Respect.

Your Brother, Sean Dedolph
