Re: Non-Responsive to ITB # 1012-0-2022/LD, Purchase & Installation of Interactive Flat Panels (IFP)

Dear Mr. Benoit:

This letter is to inform you that your bid response submitted for the reference project was incomplete and did not meet the following qualifications, and thereby has been deemed as non-responsive:

A. In accordance with Section V, Qualifications of Bidders

Firm must have an established operational service location contiguous of Martin, Indian River, and/or Palm Beach Counties, as their base location to service this contract, specializing in the installation and repairs of IFPs. Installer shall maintain local service department within a 120-mile radius of project, stock sufficient replacement parts to support specified warranty service and experienced and specialized in performing work specified. Installer shall document capability of providing 24-hour service for emergency calls, after-hours service with email and telephone numbers being used for such service.

B. In accordance with Section VII:

- Bid Form, B,3: Addendum #1 not acknowledged, or included.
- Bid Schedule: Revised Schedule of Prices was not completed or included.
- Failure to sign schedule of prices form to attest to the veracity of amount and totals submitted.

The District reserves the right to waive any informalities or irregularities, reject any and all bids that are incomplete, conditional, non-responsive, or which contain additions not allowed for; to reject any or all bids in whole or in part with or without cause; to award in whole or in part to one or more Bidders, and to accept the bid which best serves the District.

The District appreciates your time and effort in submitting your response.

Sincerely,

Renee Hayes
Director of Purchasing
