STUDENT MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR
LOS LUNAS SCHOOLS
RFP NO. 2020-002-HR
RFP Amendment No. 1
July 24, 2019

The above referenced RFP is amended as follows:

Submitted Questions and Answers

1. Can the District please clarify the amount of mental health support needed on a weekly basis per provider?

There is currently no data to provide an answer to this question since this is the first time we are completing the RFP process for these services.

2. The rate schedule only has pricing for consultations and same day assessments. Is there a need for contracted on-going mental health provider services?

There is not a need for contracted on-going mental health provider services.

3. How many hours per week does the District determine needing mental health provider services?

The District has no way of knowing this due to our students' ever changing needs. Some weeks may have minimal services while others may have several.

4. Can the District please share their current internal employee structure for mental health support?

The District does not have an internal structure in place.

5. Can the District please share their anticipated budget for this project for the 19-20 School Year?

The District has no way of knowing an actual amount since this is the first time we are completing the RFP process for these services.
