circumstance. New items which may become available over the life of the contract may be added if the product is representative of the materials requested by this bid. PLEASE DO NOT BID UNLESS YOU HAVE AUTHORIZATION TO SELL CULINARY ARTS EQUIPMENT, IN THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO AND ARE A LEGITIMATE SUPPLIER OF THE PRODUCT REQUESTED.

2. Contract Period: Any contract issued as a result of this solicitation will be in effect for up to a 4 year term.

This contract is to be used for the purpose of product only. Services and/or installation are not covered. "Price List" is defined as that which is regularly maintained by the manufacturer and is published or otherwise available for inspection by a customer. List prices must be standard in the trade and in common use for either the vendor's general clientele or comparable government accounts. Prices artificially derived for APS will not be acceptable. List(s) will be allowed to change as may be standard in the industry but the discount(s) will remain firm.

3. Quantities: Exact quantities of Culinary Arts equipment, and related material required by APS is unknown; however, APS anticipates ordering an estimated amount of $150,000 for the 2016/2017 school year utilizing a variety of contracts. This is not a commitment to purchase. The information is included to provide a potential bidder with some ideas of possible contract activity. Payment will be made to the successful bidder for actual quantities ordered and received.

4. Pricing: All pricing after discount will be F.O.B. destination including cost, insurance, and freight. F.O.B. destination shall be interpreted as final site as specified by APS. BIDDER OWNS GOODS DURING TRANSIT. Special shipping and handling charges e.g. UPS Blue label and the like when specifically requested by APS may be added at exact cost to the invoice.

APS recognizes that when quantities may vary, it will be difficult to determine freight rates. Therefore, in the pricing section, use the minimum amount space to specify the minimum dollar amount for which your firm will absorb the freight charges. For orders under this amount, vendor will prepay and add exact freight to invoice.

5. Delivery: Delivery to be F.O.B. destination, including cost, insurance, and freight to any school site or administrative site within the District. All are within the general metropolitan area. Quantities requested by APS will be on an "as needed" basis. Emergency orders may also be required.

Deliveries will be made at various times during the contract period. APS requires that the Culinary Arts Equipment be delivered to each site, physically unloaded, taken to a specific building, assembled, and set in place. This exact location will be determined at time of order placement. Delivery must be carefully coordinated with APS. District personnel will be on site(s) at the day and time specified for delivery. There are no docks. If your carrier is unable to enter a school building because of insurance or union considerations, this will be a factor in bid award. Drop shipments will not be accepted. The F.O.B. point is as defined in Pricing, Paragraph 4.

New price lists will go into effect when accepted by the Procurement Officer. New price lists found to be non-competitive by the Purchasing Department at any time during the term of the contract will be grounds for terminating the contract.

Successful bidder(s) shall supply additional price list(s) as required by APS.

9. List Price Changes: Change of list price will be subject the following conditions:
- a. All Requested changes must be in writing, addressed to the APS Procurement Officer and in advance of the requested revision. APS prefers at least a thirty (30) day notice.  - b. Changes must be standard in the industry and not unique to APS.
 - c. Price decreases as well as increase shall apply. If vendor's prices are reduced for any reason, APS shall also receive the benefit of such reductions.

Bids must be submitted by the date and at, or prior to, the time specified for consideration. Late bids will not be accepted. All bids must be signed by an authorized representative of the company.

The Contractor shall comply with all requirements of the State of New Mexico Gross Receipts Law and shall require all subcontractors to comply with same. Do not include tax in your bid price. Tax must be shown as a separate item on all invoices.

General

Brand Names: It is intended that bid specifications admit maximum competition. Brand names or model numbers, where used, are for reference as to standard of character, quality and/or operation and are not indicative of preference on the part of APS. Equal item(s) will be considered, provided the bid clearly describes the item by brand, model number, level of quality or any other appropriate criteria. Descriptive literature must be included for bid evaluation purposes. Include sample(s) if specifically requested. Failure to provide this information may disqualify your bid. Determination by APS as to what item(s) are equal shall be final and conclusive. When brand, model or other identification is not stated, it shall be understood that the bidder is quoting as specified.

Qualifications of Bidders: APS may make such investigations as necessary to determine the ability of the bidder to perform the work required. Bidder shall furnish all necessary information and data as may be requested. APS reserves the right to reject any bid if the evidence submitted or the investigation of a bidder fails to satisfy APS that the bidder is qualified to perform the obligation of the contract.

Award

Award(s) will be made to the low responsible and responsive bid(s) taking into consideration prior qualifications and capabilities of the bidder, availability of funds and any other relevant factors.

APS reserves the right: (1) to award bids received on the basis of individual item(s), or groups of items, or on the entire list of items; (2) to reject any or all bids, or any part thereof; (3) to waive any informality in the bid(s) and (4) to accept the bid(s) that is in the best interest of APS.

APS will take advantage of prompt payment discounts whenever possible; however, these will not be used as award criteria.

New Mexico procurement law provides for a five percent (5 %) residential preference. A bidder who meets state requirements shall be awarded a contract in preference to a non-resident bidder whenever the resident contractor, whose bid is nearest to the low bid of the non-residential contractor, is made lower when multiplied by a factor of .95. This does not apply when federal funds are being used. Any New Mexico firm claiming preference will insert its residential reference number as issued by the NM Tax. & Rev. Dept. in the appropriate space. Provision of the number will be the responsibility of the contractor.

Any bidder, offeror or contractor who is aggrieved in connection with a procurement action may protest to the Albuquerque Public Schools Procurement Department. The protest shall be submitted in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days after the facts or occurrences giving rise thereto.

Bidders are informed that initial orders must be furnished at prices submitted. Albuquerque Public Schools reserves the right to make award(s) within (90) days after the date of bid opening unless bidder distinctly specifies that acceptance must be within a shorter time.

Time of delivery may be a consideration in bid award(s) and shall be defined as the number of calendar days following receipt of the order, either verbally or in writing until receipt of materials, supplies or services by APS.

Packing, Shipping and Invoicing

Bidder agrees to deliver all item(s) inclusive of all cost, insurance, freight, drayage, express or other charges. Patent Indemnity

Seller shall pay all royalty and license fee(s) relating to the item(s) covered hereby. In the event any third party shall claim the manufacture, use and sale of goods covered hereby to be infringement of any copyright, trademark or patent, Seller shall indemnify and hold APS harmless from any cost, expense, damage or loss incurred in any manner by APS because of any such alleges infringement.

Warranties

Materials, supplies or services furnished under this order shall be covered by the most favorable commercial warranties the Seller gives to any customer for the same or substantially similar materials, supplies or services. The rights and remedies provided herein shall extend to APS and are in addition to and do not limit any rights afforded to APS by any other clause of this order. Seller agrees not to disclaim warranties of fitness for a particular purpose or merchantability.

Inspection

Materials, supplies or services shall be furnished exactly as specified, free from all defects in workmanship, materials, and design. Final inspection and acceptance will be made at the destination. If, prior to final acceptance, any item(s) or service(s) are found to be defective or not as specified, APS may reject them, require the Seller to correct without charge or require delivery at a reduction in price which is equitable under the circumstances. If Seller is unable or refuses to correct such item(s) within a time deemed reasonable by APS, APS may terminate the order in whole or in part. Seller shall bear all risks as to rejected materials, supplies or services and, in addition to any other costs for which the Seller may become liable to APS under other provisions in these terms and conditions, shall reimburse APS for all transportation costs, other related costs incurred, or payments to Seller for unaccepted materials, supplies and services. Notwithstanding final acceptance and payment, Seller shall be liable for latent defects, fraud or such gross mistakes as amount to fraud. Any test programs and procedures required by the specifications are in addition to, and do not limit, APS rights provided in this section.

Assignment

Neither the order nor any interest therein, nor claim thereunder shall be assigned or transferred by the Seller except as authorized in writing by APS. No assignment or transfer shall relieve the Seller from its obligations and liabilities.

Non-discrimination

Sellers doing business with APS must be in compliance with Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title VII of the Act. Rev.1979.

Changes

APS may make changes within the general scope of this order by giving notice to the Seller and subsequently confirming such changes in writing. If such changes affect the cost and/or the time required for performance of this order, an equitable adjustment in the price or delivery or both shall be made. No change by the Seller shall be recognized without written approval of APS. Any claim of Seller for any adjustment must be made in writing within thirty (30) days from date of receipt by Seller of notification of such change unless APS shall waive this condition. Nothing in this section shall excuse Seller from proceeding with performance of the order as changed hereunder.

Kickback Statement

The Procurement Code, Sections 13-1-21 through 13-1-199 NMSA 1978, imposes civil and criminal penalties for this violation. In addition, New Mexico criminal statutes impose felony penalties for illegal bribes, gratuities and kick-backs.

Termination

APS may, by written notice stating the extent and effective date, terminate this order for convenience in whole or in part, at any time. APS shall pay Seller as full compensation for performance until such termination (1) the unit or prorata order price for the delivered and accepted portion; and (2) a reasonable amount, not otherwise recoverable from other sources by Seller as approved by APS with respect to the undelivered or unaccepted portion of the order; provided compensation shall in no event exceed the total order price.

APS may by written notice terminate this order for Seller's default in whole or in part, at anytime, if Seller refuses or fails to comply, with the provisions of this order, or so fails to make progress as to endanger performance and does not cure such failure within a reasonable period of time, or fails to make deliveries of the item(s) or service(s) or to perform the service(s) within the time specified or any written extension thereof. In such event, APS may purchase or otherwise secure item(s) or service(s) and except as may be otherwise provided, Seller shall be liable to APS for any excess costs occasioned thereby.

If after notice of termination for default, APS determines that the Seller was not in default or that the failure to perform was due to causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Seller, termination shall be deemed for the convenience of APS, unless APS shall determine that the item(s) or service(s) were obtainable from other sources in sufficient time to meet required delivery schedule.

If APS determines that Seller has been delayed due to causes beyond the control and without the fault and negligence of the Seller, APS may extend the time for completion when promptly applied for in writing by the Seller. If such delay is due to failure of APS, not caused or contributed to by Seller, to perform services or deliver property in accordance with the terms of the order, the time and price of order shall be subject to change under the Changes section. Sole remedy of Seller in event of delay by failure of APS to perform shall be limited to any money actually and necessarily expended in the work during the period of delay, solely by reason of delay. No allowance will be made for anticipated profits. 'Seller' is defined as the Seller and his subsuppliers at any tier.

Contingency

Seller warrants that no person or selling agency has been employed or retained to solicit or secure this order upon an agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee excepting bona-fide employees or bona-fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained or utilized by Seller for the purpose of securing business. For violation or breach of this warranty, APS shall have the right to annul this order without liability or, at its discretion, to deduct from this order price or consideration or otherwise recover the full amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee.

Other Applicable Laws

Any provisions required to be included in a contract of this type by any applicable and valid executive order, federal, state or local law, ordinance, rule or regulation shall be deemed to be incorporated herein.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note. ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box in line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box in line 3.

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the name on line 1 is an LLC treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and enter "P" in the space provided. If the LLC has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and in the space provided enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If it is a single-member LLC that is a disregarded entity, do not check the "Limited Liability Company" box; instead check the first box in line 3 "Individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC."

Line 4, Exemptions

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the appropriate space in line 4 any code(s) that may apply to you.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on this page), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484.
