NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS

Please Read This COVID-19 Statement Completely

05/14/2020

Due to COVID-19 social distancing restrictions, the bid opening meeting for the below items will take place on June 5, 2020 at 10:00 A.M. The Bid submission deadline will remain as June 4, 2020 at 2:00 PM. Bids will not be accepted after this deadline, no exceptions! It is highly recommended that you do not wait until the deadline to submit your bid. You may mail your sealed bid package, but there have been noticeable delays recently of mailed items through most providers. Johnson County is not responsible for any delays in delivery, and is not responsible for items being signed by someone other than the Purchasing Agent, Dustin Shearin. If you wish to hand deliver directly to the Johnson County Purchasing Agent, please call 423-727-7861 or email purchasing@johnsoncountyttn.gov to schedule a drop off time. Please ensure that you allow enough time prior to the bid submission deadline to schedule a direct hand delivery with the Purchasing Agent. If the Purchasing Agent has not verified receipt of the bid submission, assume that it has not been received. You may contact the Purchasing Agent to seek verification of sealed bid packet being received. It is ultimately the bidder's responsibility to ensure that bids are submitted prior to the submission deadline, no exceptions!

Vendors and public access to the meeting location will be restricted. Vendors and the public will have an option to call into and listen to the bid opening via Zoom (See Attached). The Zoom meeting access information will also be posted at www.johnsoncountyttn.gov. In the event of technical difficulties and per current Governor's orders, an audio recording of the meeting will also be made available within two business days of the meeting. A notice of meeting time change will be posted at www.johnsoncountyttn.gov and at the meeting location if any date or time changes are required prior to the bid opening meeting.
