The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Dept. of Public Safety in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2021-2022 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2021. The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council may recommend certain programs for one or two-year funding awards dependent upon program performance, compliance with JCPC policy, and the availability of state JCPC allocation funds.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1. Restitution/Community Service | 5. Independent Living Skills | 9. Structured Day Programs (A MCO endorsed Day Treatment program) |
| 2. Psychological Assessment & Sex Offender Specific Evaluations | 6. Parent/Family Skills Building (preferably Strengthening Families or other EBP models) | 10. Teen Court |
| 3. Temporary Shelter Care | 7. Social Skill Building Programs (preferably for chronic and serious offenders) | 11. Afterschool Programs (preferably EBP-Interpersonal Skills; Life Skills) |
| 4. Vocational Development Programs | 8. Tutoring/Academic Enhancement (with academic advocacy) | 12. Experiential Skills Programs |

*School Behavior Problems, *Pro-social peer rejection and association with other involved in delinquent activity, Substance Use or abuse, Mental Health Needs * Parent Enhancement skills needed, *Substance Use, Vocational Development and Skills

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

- Peer Domain: Randolph County youth involved with the juvenile justice system are more likely to be rejected by pro-social peers and sometimes associate with others involved in delinquent.
- Individual Domain: Randolph County youth involved in the juvenile justice system have some substance use or abuse, and have mental health needs being met or that need further assessment. Randolph County youth are 12 years or older when the first delinquent offense is alleged in a complaint.
- Family Domain: Youth have family members who have prior or current involvement in the criminal justice system. Family/Parental Supervision Skills are marginal and/or parental enhancement skills needed for juvenile court referred youth. Access services that provide best practices and have the ability to engage families are needed.
- School Domain: Youth involved with Randolph County Juvenile Justice system have increased risk of moderate to serious school behavior issues reflected in prolonged absences from school and suspensions.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
