3.1.2. All materials used in the CIPP process shall comply with applicable requirements of ASTM F1216 and NSF/ANSI Standard 14. Compliance shall be indicated by a current listing of the CIPP product by an ANSI accredited testing agency, or a testing agency approved by the owner (e.g. NSF International, IAPMO, ICC-ES).

3.1.3. Verification of standard and code compliance, where applicable, of the CIPP product to be used shall be made prior to installation of the CIPP. Verification shall include applicable code (e.g. UPC, IPC) compliance indicated by current listing of the CIPP product by an ANSI accredited testing agency, or a testing agency approved by the owner (e.g. NSF International, IAPMO, ICC-ES).

3.1.4. All product submittals shall include a current copy of the required agency product listing(s) and copies of certified third-party testing supporting compliance with standard requirements and design of the CIPP as per this section and section 3.5.

3.2. Resin

3.2.1. The resin shall be a corrosion resistant, single component, styrene-free vinyl ester resin system that, when properly cured within the liner composite, meets the requirements of ASTM F1216, the minimum physical properties described herein, and those which are to be utilized in the design of the CIPP for this project.

3.2.2. The resin system shall be Bluelight by Hammerhead Trenchless.

3.2.3. The method of cure shall be in accordance with manufacturer's recommendations using LED light with 450 nm wavelength.

3.2.4. Liner resin saturation rate shall be provided by the CIPP system manufacturer.

3.3. Liner (Tube) and manufacturer's recommendations.

3.3.1. The liner shall consist of one or more layers of flexible needled felt, needled felt with polyester weft between the felt layers (SCRIM), or knitted polyester approved by Hammerhead Trenchless that meet the requirements of ASTM F1216.

3.3.2. The outside layer of the tube shall be coated or protected with a translucent flexible material that is compatible with the resin system used and permits proper inspection of the resin impregnation procedure.

3.3.3. The liner shall be compatible with the resin system used. Combinations of the liner and resin system shall be approved by the CIPP system manufacturer with current quality assurance certifications verifying the composite CIPP performance.

3.3.4. Where applicable, the liner shall provide the flexibility to line through bends to result in a smooth interior finish on the outside radius and minimal wrinkling on the inside radius.

3.3.5. The installed liner shall have a minimum thickness that will meet or exceed the design requirements.

3.3.6. The wall color of the interior pipe surface of the CIPP after installation shall be a light, reflective color so that a clear, detailed examination may be made of the final product with closed circuit television (CCTV) inspection equipment or man entry methods.

3.4. Calibration Tube

3.4.1. Clear (translucent) flexible tube shall be used to inflate and pressurize an open-ended liner to the desired host pipe inside diameter. Translucent tube shall not affect curing time, be designed to provide resistance against tearing and higher temperature resistance and be utilized to visually verify liner geometry prior to initiating the LED curing process.

3.5. Design requirements

3.5.1. The CIPP wall thickness shall be designed per ASTM F1216, Appendix X1 utilizing the following assumptions, unless otherwise specified by the Owner or Engineer:

- Fully deteriorated host pipe
- Factor of Safety = 2.0
- Soil Modulus = 1,500 psi
- Soil Density = 120 pcf
- Live Load = AASHTO HS-20
- Depth of Cover = as specified
- Groundwater depth = 1 ft from top of pipe
- Host Pipe Ovality = 2%
- Enhancement factor, K = 7.0
- Poisson's ratio = 0.30

3.5.2. The CIPP shall, at a minimum, meet or exceed the mechanical properties as listed below:

- Initial flexural modulus of elasticity (ASTM D790) = 325,000 psi
- Initial flexural strength (ASTM D790) = 5,000 psi
- Long term flexural properties (ASTM D2990 or DIN EN 761) = 30% of initial Values

3.5.3. The structural performance of the lined pipe shall accommodate all anticipated external loads throughout its design life. Any CIPP rehabilitation technology that relies on adhesion to the existing pipe as a structural design component is not permitted.

3.5.4. Chemical resistance: The CIPP shall meet the chemical resistance requirements of ASTM F1216, Appendix X2 for domestic sanitary sewer applications.

4. EXECUTION

4.1. General

4.1.1. The Owner shall identify that all access points for lining are open and accessible for the scope of work. The Contractor may, under the direction of the Owner, install the CIPP through existing manholes, cleanouts, or designated access points.

4.2. Preparation

4.2.1. Pre-Cleaning CCTV – The Contractor shall request utility locating (as required by the Owner) to identify potential cross-bore utilities within the proximity of the service lateral to be cleaned for rehabilitation, if applicable. Prior to cleaning, the Contractor shall to all extents possible, televise the service lateral to confirm that cleaning the lateral will not damage or breach a conflicting utility bored through the sewer lateral (such as natural gas or power) when utility location indicates a potential conflict.

4.2.2. Cleaning of Pipelines - The Contractor shall remove all internal debris from the pipeline that will interfere with the installation and the finished product quality as required in these specifications. The Contractor shall make use of commercially available industry standard cleaning equipment to prepare the pipe for system installation. Solid debris and deposits shall be removed from the pipeline, if possible, and disposed of properly by the Contractor. Precautions shall be taken by the Contractor in the use of cleaning equipment to avoid damage to the existing pipe. If the pipe cannot be cleaned sufficiently using industry standard cleaning equipment, then additional cleaning will be considered changed conditions.

4.2.3. Pre-Lining CCTV – Upon completion of the cleaning, the Contractor shall then perform a Pre-Lining CCTV Inspection.

4.2.4. Line Obstructions - It shall be the responsibility of the Contractor to clear the line of obstructions that will interfere with the installation and long-term performance of the system. If pre-installation inspection reveals an obstruction, misalignment, broken or collapsed section or sag that was not identified as part of the original scope of work and will prohibit proper installation of the CIPP, the Contractor may be directed by the Owner to correct the problem(s) prior to installing the CIPP by utilizing open cut repair methods. The Contractor shall be compensated for this work as changed conditions or through a contract contingency pay item.

4.2.5. The Contractor shall be responsible for confirming the locations of all branch service connections prior to installing and curing the CIPP. Reinstatement in small diameter pipes (6" diameter and smaller) may require a clean-out for external reinstatement.

4.2.6. The Contractor shall be allowed use water from an owner water source(s) in the project vicinity.

4.3. Installation

4.3.1. Resin Impregnation

4.3.1.1. The entire liner shall be impregnated (wet out) with the single component vinyl ester resin system using vacuum impregnation. Adequate precautions shall be taken to protect the CIPP from sunlight exposure and blue light.

Special lighting shall be used to ensure that no radiation in the blue light wave range triggers the premature curing of the resin.

4.3.1.2. The impregnated liner shall be passed through an adjustable calibration roller to evenly distribute the resin as recommended by the manufacturer. Roller gap shall be calibrated in accordance with manufacturer's guidelines.

4.3.1.3. The impregnated (wet out) liner shall be free of pinholes, resin voids and other defects after impregnation is completed.

4.3.2. The wet out liner shall be fully protected from sunlight and blue light as it is loaded into a pressure apparatus (e.g., inversion drum). If an inversion drum with inspection windows is used, these windows must be either covered entirely or with a film which filters out blue light. The pressure apparatus must have an air regulator equipped with pressure gauges and safety blow-off to ensure recommended air pressure as supplied by the CIPP system manufacturer. The CIPP system manufacturer's recommended installation pressures shall be supplied to the pressure apparatus to fully invert the wet out liner into the lateral pipe and hold the CIPP tightly against the host pipe ID (internal wall). Care shall be taken during the inversion process so as not to overstress the liner. If no access is available on one end of the installation, a calibration tube will be similarly inverted into the liner in order to hold pressure and maintain a close fit during processing.

4.3.3. After lateral CIPP installation is completed, the CIPP system manufacturers recommended pressure shall be maintained on the impregnated CIPP for the duration of the curing process. The LED light head shall be slowly and carefully inserted to the far end of the installed CIPP through a side feed/slucie using a push cable while maintaining pressure. The insertion process shall be monitored by a CCTV camera integrated into the LED light head. Once the LED light head is positioned at the far end of the CIPP, it shall be retracted by a fully automated system via motor-driven rollers. Curing time is dependent on CIPP length, diameter and thickness and the light source used, and shall be in accordance with the CIPP manufacturer's recommendations.

4.3.4. After curing is complete, the LED head shall be initially cooled inside the slucie. The system may then be depressurized and disconnected.

4.3.5. Contractor shall maintain detailed records of all activities in accordance with the CIPP manufacturer's recommendations. The complete CIPP installation process shall be controlled, monitored and recorded via a monitor with an integrated touch screen.

4.3.6. Existing branch connections to the service lateral shall be reinstated by a remote controlled cutting device from within the pipeline or externally through a cleanout, as digging will not be permitted due to control and electrical rooms being above. The reinstated connection shall be brushed smooth around the entire periphery of the opening.

4.4. Inspection and Testing

4.4.1. The installation shall be inspected visually, if appropriate, and by CCTV. Variations from true line and grade may be inherent because of the conditions of the original piping.

4.4.2. The installed system shall be continuous over the specified length of the sewer line section and be free from visual defects such as foreign inclusions, dry spots, pinholes, major wrinkles and delamination. The system shall be impervious and free of any leakage from the pipe to the surrounding ground or from the ground to inside the lined pipe.

4.4.3. After the work is completed, the Contractor shall provide the Sheriff's office with video showing the completed work, including the restored conditions.
