SCOPE OF WORK

Located on the property is a structure known as Haisten’s Hospital and it is a great contribution to the historical and architectural significance of the City of Griffin and Spalding County, Georgia. Haisten’s Hospital is located on .854 acres and is comprised of a main building with multiple out buildings, totaling approximately 10,500 square feet. It is imperative that the property’s historical and architectural significance be maintained and preserved. As such, all responses should address:

- 1) The responding firm’s plan for rehabilitation and repair of the property in accordance with the “Standards for Rehabilitation and Guidelines for Rehabilitating Historic Buildings,” as published by The Secretary for the United States Department of the Interior and the “Georgia Historic Preservation Handbook” as published by the Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation.
- 2) The responding firm’s planned use of the property in accordance with all appropriate zoning ordinances and the most recent Comprehensive Plan of the City of Griffin.
- 3) A proposed timeline for the rehabilitation and preservation of the property.
- 4) Whether or not the firm would consider providing a performance bond for this project.

COMPANY BACKGROUND & EXPERIENCE

Responding firms are to provide:

- 1) A summary of the firm’s background, to include its mission statement and its current operations.
- 2) A summary of the firm’s qualifications to the rehabilitation and repair of the property in accordance with the standards listed above including but not limited to the following:
 - a. The number of employees currently working for the firm.
 - b. The firm’s general contractor’s license, if applicable.
- 3) A summary of any similar projects completed by the firm.
- 4) Provide at least five (5) professional references including the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses (preferably regarding projects similar to this), for the firm.
- 5) Provide information to demonstrate the firm’s financial ability to rehabilitate and repair the Property including but not limited to the firm’s Profit and Loss (P&L) Statements and Balance Sheets for the preceding three years.

GSCLBA reserves the right to reject any and/or all proposal, call for new proposals, to waive any informalities in an offer, and to select the most responsive offer with terms acceptable to GSCLBA. GSCLBA reserves the right to accept, reject, and/or negotiate all offers or parts thereof deemed by the Board to be in the best interest of the citizens of the City of Griffin, Spalding County, and the preservation of the Property's historical significance.

GSCLBA reserves the right to request clarification of information submitted and to request additional information from any respondent.

GSCLBA reserves the right to award any contract to the next most qualified respondent if the successful respondent does not execute a contract within thirty (30) days after the selection of the respondent.

Any proposal may be withdrawn up until the date and time set above for opening of the sealed proposals. No offer may be modified or withdrawn for a period of one hundred-twenty (120) calendar days thereafter.

By submitting a proposal, all proposing parties certify that their proposals are made without collusion or fraud and that they have not offered or received any inducements from any other person or party in connection with their proposals, and that they have not conferred with any GSCLBA employee or official having official responsibility for this transaction of any payment, loan, subscription, advance, deposit of money, services, or anything of value of more than nominal value, present or promise, unless consideration of substantially equal or greater value was exchanged.

By submitting their sealed proposals, all respondents certify that they are not currently debarred from submitting bids or proposals on contracts by any agency of the State of Georgia and the federal government, nor are they an agent of any person or entity that is currently debarred from submitting bids or proposals on contracts by any agency of the State of Georgia or the federal government.

Those submitting responses do so entirely at their expense. There is no expressed or implied obligation by the GSCLBA to reimburse any individual for any costs incurred in preparing or submitting proposals or providing additional information when requested by the GSCLBA.

Submittal

All interested parties should submit three (3) copies of the offer, which should include a proposed sales contract and documentation responsive to the above requests. Proposals received after this deadline will not be considered.
