

Meigs County TN is now accepting sealed bids for the extension of Blythe Ferry boat ramp.

Bids are to include extension of existing ramp, all materials, labor, and any clean-up/disposal. Qualifications, experience, and references will also need to be submitted with the bid. All prospective bidders must provide proof of license and insurance. All necessary permits are the responsibility of the bidder and proof will need to be submitted before the signing of any binding contract with Meigs county. Bid will be awarded based on both qualifications and pricing. Meigs county reserves the right to decline any and all bids. Tentative dates for the contract are as follows: Project begin date December 2023 and project completion date April 30, 2024. Deadline to turn in sealed bids is November 30, 2023 @ 10:00 am. Sealed bids will be opened on November 30, 2023 @ 10:30am in the Mayor's conference room on the first floor of the Meigs county courthouse. For specifications, please visit the county website at www.meigscounty.org or contact the Finance Office @ 423-334-5846. To schedule a site survey contact the Mayor's office @423-334-5850.
