

CES/Team One Communications North Tower Relocation

Quote:

Equipment or Service:

CES/Team One Communications is a Motorola Premier Service Provider located in Pensacola, FL., we are quoting to relocate established microwave radio and associated equipment and transmission lines from existing radio shelter to a replacement radio shelter and remove and dispose of old equipment.

Location:

North Site 7955 Bratt Rd.

Tower Information: FCC# 1028867

CES Team One Communications Requirements:

- Relocate (5-6) equipment racks and associated equipment and 17 transmission lines
- Coordinate with each agency to determine channel downtime and alternate plan
- Coordinate with and relocate Department of Forestry repeater
- Coordinate with and dispose of unused City of Pensacola equipment
- Remove and dispose of unused racks in new shelter (7-10)
- Relocate dehydrator & lines
- Relocate Digital Paging repeater
- Relocate Flash tower lighting equipment
- Relocate surge suppression unit(s)
- Relocate TRAC units
- Seal transmission line entry points
- Ground equipment according to manufactures recommendation or Motorola R56 standards and guidelines
- CES/Team One Communications will coordinate with and procure any service needed from Motorola Solutions for engineering or modification work needed to maintain the system in its current state.
- CES/Team One will establish and integrate current alarms into the existing Motorola MOSCAD alarm reporting system including: door, smoke, high temp, low temp, tower lights, surge arrestor, UPS, generator run, and microwave alarms.

- CES/Team One Communications works with Tower Services Group who employees possesses valid Comtrain Basic Tower Safety and Rescue training certifications.
- CES/Team One Communications provides a full manufacture warranty on materials purchased and three (3) year warranty on workmanship from the final date of acceptance.
- System shall be tested to demonstrate satisfactory functional and operating efficiency on completion of relocation.
- All work is to be completed according to the manufacturer's instructions, specifications, and/or standard trade practices.
- Identified equipment shall be removed and disposed by CES/Team One Communications.
- Electrical work included in quote moving existing UPS and reinstalling existing OP8 surge protection

Pricing for Relocation and Reinstallation:

$16,000.00

Escambia County Requirements:

Tower Ground and Building Ground to be at current R56 standards in new building.

The new building is supplied with AC power and capable of supporting new equipment, working generator, and to handle load with working transfer panels.

All communications equipment is working properly prior to relocations.

Contact: Jon Luth General Manager (850-432-7787).

Qualifications:

CES/Team One Communications is a Motorola Premier Service Partner that is dedicated to providing land mobile radio (LMR) work as our main focus of our company business.

Our relocation/reinstall is a complete, turnkey, relocation project. It is understood that our quote includes each component for material and labor, even though every item involved is not listed herein. We are responsible to provide ALL labor and materials (including electrical and grounding) for the entire scope of the project.

Customer References:

Scott Markel Santa Rosa Communications Chief (850) 983-5249

Brenda Kahalley City of Pensacola IT (850) 436-5639

Chris McGhee Poarch Creek Training Chief (251) 368-9136